Korean New Year Celebration!

02/02/2011 2:23 pm

Korean New Year, commonly known as Seolnal, is the first day of the lunar calendar. It is the most important of the traditional Korean holidays. It consists of a period of celebrations, starting on New Year 's Day. Korean New Year is typically a family-oriented holiday. The three-day holiday is enjoyed by many by returning to their home towns to visit their parents and other relatives.

1. What is worn on Korean New Year 's Day?

Many Koreans dress up in Colorful Hanbok. It is the traditional Korean dress. It is often characterized by vibrant colors and simple linens without pockets.

2. What is eaten on Korean New Year ' s Day?

Tteokguk (soup with rice cakes) is commonly served on New Year ' s Day. Tteok (rice cake) sounds like Deok in Korean, which means " virtue " in English. Tteok is eaten together with others in order to spread virtue to everyone. Tteok is believed to grant luck for the forthcoming year and signify the gain of an additional year of life.
